GUAM DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION LIBRARY MISSION

The library’s mission is to provide information in a variety of format, teach the skills to use them, and instill a desire in students to read and explore, as lifelong learners.
Affirmative Statement

Strengthening our capacity as a library community to provide and build the skills for our students to become lifelong learners.
DISCOVERY PHASE

Conduct focus sessions designed to discover strengths, passions, unique attributes of the organization at its best. What achievements of your organization are you proud of.

“What is already working!!”

Storytelling
What achievements of your organization are you proud of?

“What is already working!!”
DREAM PHASE

Identify patterns, themes and/or intriguing possibilities.

What do you envision the organization and the possibilities of what it could be.

If you have three wishes for your organization, what would they be.

As part of the “Dream” stage, we take the best of what currently happens and determine the circumstances that made that possible. We then write one or more “provocative propositions” which describe the idealized future in which the best happens all the time, and serve as a reminder to focus on it.
WISHFUL THINKING

Write at least three “provocative” wishes for the department-wide library community.

The possibilities of what could be!!
DESIGN PHASE

Co-determine "what should be"
(consensus re: principles & priorities)
DELIVERY PHASE

Engage with your community to implement strategies/objectives.

Empower your stakeholders and the community.

Expectations are shared.
